

Basil Stevens Memorial

Basil Stevens was a sports writer and long-time member of South Bay. He passed away in 2004 and is sorely missed. This contest is being run primarily with funds donated in his memory.

What? Previously unpublished essay, article, story, or poem, 750-words maximum. Topic: sports theme.

Prize? First prize is a scholarship to the East of Eden Writers Conference, Sept. 5-7, 2008, Salinas, CA (a $425 value, includes extras). Second prize is $100 credit toward the Conference. Third is $50 credit toward the Conference.

Entry? Fee is $10 per entry. Open to all, except previous first place winners are not eligible to enter. Make your check payable to: "East of Eden Writers Conference". Do not send cash.

Deadline? July 1, 2008 (postmarked). Winners announced August 1 on www.southbaywriters.com. All entrants will be notified via e-mail.

Format? Print on one side only, number pages, double-space, 12-point type. Include the story title in the header on all pages. No personal identification of any kind on any of the pages. Put name and contact information, including e-mail address, on a separate page or index card attached to your entry with a paper clip.

More information? www.southbaywriters.com
California Writers Club, South Bay Branch, or
Robert Garfinkle (510) 489-4779 (after Noon).

Send entry to:

Basil Stevens Memorial Writing Contest
East of Eden/CWC
PO Box 3254
Santa Clara, CA 95055-3254

Writing Contest

